

The clinician-patient feedback loop

Pilot workflow | Clinician approval stays at the center of treatment guidance.

Boundaries: AI assistance is a labeled preview; it never sends treatment advice. No push notifications or continuous monitoring. Additional care-team permissions are not implemented.

Validation note: production administrator access exceptions require separate review before rollout.